

LEIGH R. MELTON, J.D. '98

Co-Chair, Strategic Engagement Committee
President's Council

Leigh has had a rather diverse background. In the corporate and public-sector environments, Leigh was a successful managing partner of a law firm for over fifteen years, guiding her firm to meaningful growth and profitability. At her firm, Leigh had an important role in the development of the firm's strategic thinking, direction and personnel.

Leigh also has in-house background with the Miami Heat, where she learned to collaborate effectively with others at all levels of the organization. For nine years Leigh was a faculty member at the University of Baltimore School of Law and a Visiting Professor at the University of Richmond School of Law teaching multiple classes and receiving several grants for both universities. Leigh also helped establish and have been President of Mid-Shore Pro Bono, a non-profit organization who connects low income individuals and families in need of civil legal help with volunteer attorneys and community resources. In addition to her professional achievements, Wadsworth is committed to diversity and

As President of the Board, Leigh helped steer the organization towards a sustainable future by adopting sound, ethical, and legal governance and financial management policies, as well as hiring their current Director to run the day-to-day management activities of the organization.
